

Graduate Institute Highlights (Fall 2024)

First Destination Survey

- 63% of responding students graduating between December 2021 and May 2024 were employed full-time at the time of graduation
- 92% were employed full-time within six months
- 91% of students had employment related to their SIT graduate degrees

5-Year Follow-Up Survey

- 89% of responding students graduating between August 2017 and August 2019 indicated that attending SIT increased their ability to engage with cultural diversity
- 91% indicated that attending SIT increased their ability to think critically
- 73% indicated that they had the opportunity to apply the knowledge and skills gained at SIT in their current places of employment